I recently join Help & Helps Samiti Children Home (Boy’s) at Janjigir as a volunteer and when I interacted with juveniles of home, I realized that they are very talented and well mannered and growing optimistically with this organization. They all are well in study and I really enjoy the moment of teaching them. Thanks Help & Helps Samiti for accept my volunteer application and allow me to teach children.

Always I am eager to do social work and when I have seen various social activities by Help & Helps Samiti. Once I had visited their Children Home and came to know about organization objective, I had applied for volunteer, after verification and scrutiny, now I am a Volunteer of this organization.
